

Disability Directory

This publication is designed to draw together details of the wide range of organisations who offer support and services to members of the community who may need assistance in improving their quality of life

NOTES

This is the Third edition of the directory and it is aimed to draw together a list of contacts for individuals, their families and carers.

It is aimed to assist in improving the quality of life for individuals who may have some difficulties.

If you are aware of any other voluntary support Group that offers services to help people suffering from any condition that inhibits their lifestyle - please ask them to contact the author (address below) so that they can be included in the next issue.

Further copies, including in a large print format, are available by contacting the Rushmoor Access Group (contact details below)

Libraries

Aldershot and Farnborough libraries are great places to visit for information, learning and leisure. They are located in the heart of their communities and access is easy with electronic doors, lifts and fully accessible toilets available as well. It's very simple to join, there are no forms to fill in and membership is free. Expand your horizons with the latest books (including eBooks, audio and large print books), DVDs, music and free Internet.

Specialist facilities are also available such as Video magnifiers (CCTVs) and computers with accessible software.

In addition, a new service called Boardmaker will be introduced at some point in 2012. Boardmaker is computer software that contains thousands of Picture Communication Symbols for use with anyone who needs additional support with communication such as people with Autism or stroke survivors with aphasia.

Both libraries offer a wide range of adult education and learning activities in a relaxed and friendly environment with well resourced community rooms and IT suites. Find out about computers and improve your IT skills, or take up a new hobby via our leisure courses such as family history, languages and crafts. Classes are small and are run by qualified tutors and we can give you additional individual support from our team of volunteers. If you have access needs, speak to us – we can help.

Or join one of our social groups and meet new people – from craft clubs, scrabble, Knit & Knatter to Local History and Reading Groups (including an audio group for visually Impaired people), we can offer you a great choice.

And if you can't get to the library, we can come to you! Ask about our mobile services and our Home Library Service.
