Voting by proxy

If you are not able to attend the polling station in person for reasons relating to your occupation, service or employment, and you only become aware of this after 5pm on the sixth working day before an election, you can apply to vote by emergency proxy (someone else voting on your behalf). You can apply up until 5pm on election day.

This form should not be used if you have been detained in a hospital under Section 145 of the Mental Health Act 1983 in England and Wales or Section 329 of the Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 in Scotland.

Who can support my application?

■ “I’m self-employed, who can support my application?”

A person aged 18 years or over who knows you and is not your spouse, civil partner, parent, grandparent, brother, sister, child or grandchild.

■ “I’m employed, who can support my application?”

Your employer or another authorised person at your workplace.

■ “I am registered as a service voter, who can support my application?”

If you are a member of the Armed Forces, a Crown servant, a British Council employee or the spouse or civil partner of one of the above and you are registered as a service voter, you do not need support for your application.

If you are registered as an ordinary elector, you will need support from your employer or another authorised person at your workplace.

What happens after I’ve returned this form?

- Your proxy must go to your polling station to vote on your behalf.
- You should tell your proxy how you want them to vote on your behalf, for example, which candidate or which party.
- Your local election office will tell your proxy when and where to vote on your behalf.
- You will need to give your date of birth and signature on this application form. This information is needed to prevent fraud. If you are unable to sign this form, please contact your Electoral Registration Officer.

Voting as proxy

A person can only be a proxy for close relatives and up to two other people at an election.

Close relatives are the spouse, civil partner, parent, grandparent, brother, sister, child or grandchild of the applicant.

The proxy must be eligible to vote.

More information

If you have any questions about voting by proxy, go to www.aboutmyvote.co.uk or contact your electoral registration office.

In England and Wales, the electoral registration office is based at your local council. In Scotland, it may be a separate office. For contact details, go to www.aboutmyvote.co.uk.

This form does not apply in Northern Ireland. Visit www.eoni.org.uk for more information.

How do I apply to vote by proxy?

- 1 You must ask someone if they are willing and able to be your proxy and vote on your behalf. Please note that a person can only be the proxy for close relatives and up to two other people at the same election.
- 2 Unless you are registered to vote as a service voter, you must get an appropriate person to sign your application. See notes below for information on who can support your application
- 3 Make sure you complete all sections of the form and supply your date of birth and signature.
- 4 Return your form as soon as possible to the address shown below.

Please do not return your form to the Electoral Commission. Please note: this form can only be used after 5pm on the sixth working day before an election and must arrive at your electoral registration office before 5pm on the day of the election.

This form can only be used for an election taking place on or after 22 May 2014 (but excluding the Referendum on Independence for Scotland).
