

Non-dependant deductions 2021-22

Housing benefit deductions for non-dependants from April 2021

Non-dependant income	Weekly deduction
Aged under 25 and receiving Income Support, income-based Jobseeker's Allowance, or income-related Employment Support Allowance that does not include an amount for support or work related activity	Nil
Receiving state pension credit	Nil
Aged 25 or over and receiving Income Support or income-based Jobseeker's Allowance, or over 18 and not working	£15.95
Receiving main phase Employment Support Allowance	£15.95
Aged over 18 and working:
Gross income less than £149.00 per week	£15.95
Gross income £149.00 to £216.99 per week	£36.65
Gross income £217.00 to £282.99 per week	£50.30
Gross income £283.00 to £376.99 per week	£82.30
Gross income £377.00 to £468.99 per week	£93.70
Gross income £469.00 and above per week	£102.85

Please note: If you have rent-free weeks, these figures will be higher

Council tax support deductions for non-dependants from April 2021

Non-dependant income	Weekly deduction
Receiving Income Support, income-based Jobseeker's Allowance, State Pension Credit, or income-related Employment Support Allowance	Nil
Aged over 18 and not working	£4.05
Aged over 18 and working:
Gross income less than £217.00 per week	£4.05
Gross income £217.00 to £376.99 per week	£8.30
Gross income £377.00 to £468.99 per week	£10.40
Gross income more than £469.00 per week	£12.45