The Code of Practice concerning gaming machine permits and permissions in alcohol licensed premises is available via the Gambling Commission's website at www.gamblingcommission.gov.uk. NB: Failure to comply with the relevant Code of Practice renders the provision of gaming machines on licensed premises an offence. If you are unclear as to the provisions of the relevant Code of Practice please contact the Gambling Commission or your local authority licensing service.
- (b) An application for grant / variation / transfer of a licensed premises gaming machine permit or conversion of an existing Section 34 gaming machine permit issued under the Gaming Act 1968 can not be made in respect of any premises where a premises licence issued under Part 8 of the Gambling Act 2005 has effect.

(3) Type of gaming machine(s) permitted

- (a) Sections 282 and 283 of the Gambling Act 2005 and associated regulations limit the type of gaming machine(s) that may be located in alcohol licensed premises to the categories detailed below.

Category [†]	Maximum stake	Maximum prize
C	£1	£70
D*	10p/30p/£1*	£5/£8/£15/£50*

[†] As defined in the Gambling Act 2005

*Where a machine is a money-prize machine, it is a Category D machine if the maximum charge for use is no more than 10p and the maximum prize value is no more than £5. Where a machine is a non-money prize machine (other than a crane grab machine), it is a Category D machine if the maximum charge for use is no more than 30p and the maximum prize value is no more than £8. Where a machine is a crane grab machine, it is a Category D machine if the maximum charge for use is no more than £1 and the maximum prize value is no more than £50. Where a machine is a coin pusher or penny fall machine, it is a Category D machine if the maximum charge for use is no more than 10p and the maximum prize value is no more than £15, of which no more than £8 may be a money prize. In any other case, a machine is a Category D machine if the maximum charge for use is no more than 10p and the maximum prize value is no more than £8 of which no more than £5 may be a money prize.

(4) Number of gaming machines permitted

- (a) Section 282 of the Gambling Act 2005 provides an automatic entitlement (on notification) to make available a total of 2 (two) gaming machines only (of category C or D (or both)).
- (b) Section 283 and Schedule 13 of the Gambling Act 2005 provide for licensed premises gaming machine permits. While there is no statutory limit to the number of gaming machines that may be applied for on permit, licensing authorities have some discretion in respect of the numbers of gaming machines that may be provided (see below). Applicants may therefore wish to contact their relevant licensing authority about any local policies regarding applications and whether application for certain numbers of machines are decided by a hearing of local councillors.

(5) Duration of permits / notifications

- (a) A notification (under Section 282 of the Gambling Act 2005) or permit (granted under Section 283 and schedule 13 of the Gambling Act 2005) is linked to the premises licence holder and premises licence issued under the Licensing Act 2003. A notification / permit lasts as long as the premises licence and holder to which it is linked.
- (b) Section 282 notifications will therefore need to be submitted for each new premises licence holder of the premises licensed under the Licensing Act 2003 as appropriate. Section 283 permits may be subject to transfer in accordance with the premises licence issued under the Licensing Act 2003.

(6) Cancellation, disapplication and forfeiture of permits / notifications

- (a) A licensing authority may disapply a Section 282 notification or cancel a Section 283 permit (where granted) or vary the number or category of gaming machines (or both) in the following circumstances.
